Commissioner Barbara Nacarelli - None

Deputy Commissioner James Johnson -

- People gave feedback and gave ideas for the MAAD revisited meeting
 - Uniforms was one thing that was brought up

Secretary Lynda Collicott –

- Columbia team complained about the process in which they were allowed coda on Friday but then not allowed on Saturday.
- Got some contacts for the MAAD Revisited meeting
- When I send out meeting minutes, please help me review it so I can send it out without mistakes.

Treasurer Ralph Fuetchmann –

- Will give checks to the winning teams
- Audit for 2010 completed

Tournament Director Greg Petersen –

- $100 fine for Faribault
- Columbia complaint
- Loy situation resolved

Greg Petersen moved for MAAD to pay $100 fine back to St. Louis Bell Coed team Seconded by Laura Lister
PASSED

Hall of Fame Robert Love -

- Was approached by Columbia team players with complaints with how it was handled
- Suggest hosting MAAD over Labor day weekend – talk to your delegates

Past President Wayne Morse -

- Work together to solve problems for MAAD
- Get prices for hotel for 2012

2011 Softball Chair Laura Lister –

- Received a compliment from a CODA – called MAAD unique! Really enjoyed himself

2012 Softball Chair Lori Shanks for Marti Herman –

- Not giving out trophies – people either throw away or store in storage. Feels that's wasteful

- Thinking about giving bat, bat bag etc.. – got feedback on it
- Working towards being more family friendly
- Possible bid for 2013

Adjourned at 9:54 p.m.

Respectively submitted,

Lynda Collicott, MAAD Secretary
